Tragedy In a Court Room.

CENCINNATI, Dec. 5. - A most shocking tragedy occurred this forenoon in the court room of Magistrate Dumming. At 10 o'clock the case of Lunus Lerler was called. The lenow was c. ar ed with fi ving threatened whom he had been engaged to marry, until a quarter enocu the courismp when Kener commenced to make chitals be was companied of. The oung lady was on usual to preser he charge, and as her eyes med those d her tother lover the miser, with muttered cause, arew a revolver and rusaed at the woman. The court officials scattered in every direction, with the exe ption of Justice Dumming, who plackily sprang between the pair and cailed on Keller to put up his weapon. The furious man pansed a single second and the and then pressing the point of the pistol to his left breast fired. The bullet penetrated his heart and he dropped to the floor, dead as a stone. The clothing of the suicide was igni-ted by the flash from the weapon and commenced burning briskly, as the body tay there motionless, until the blaze was extinguished with a prioner of water. Miss lamer exhibited no emotion whatever. When the pistol-was first pointed at her she neather screamed nor familed, but stood watering three or four men wao picked up the still smouldering remains of ner lover and laid thom on the table. She then waited from the room washout looking back.
